Police/Public Safety issues timely warnings when an issue poses a potential risk of loss or harm, to allow the community to take steps to protect themselves and aid in prevention of similar crimes. This timely warning is issued as soon as pertinent information becomes available, in a manner that reaches the entire campus community. Police/Public Safety Department participates in the College student orientations, held before fall and spring semesters, and provides information regarding College security systems, policies, and emergency procedures. Formal and informal security sessions have been implemented for College employees and students.

The College's Police/Public Safety Department offers escorts to students, staff and guests to and from their vehicles parked in the Morgan Street Garage. To request an escort, contact the Police/Public Safety office at (860) 906-5075.

Capital Community College maintains an extensive array of policies, procedures, and notification processes in the event of an emergency. These procedures are intended to be far reaching to the College and surrounding community, contacting as many people as possible in a short time. Included are procedures for immediate notification of Police, Fire and Emergency Services. All College emergency procedures are compiled and published on the College website in a comprehensive manual entitled "Emergency Operations Manual". This manual includes internal and external notification policies. Included is specific information on evacuation procedures, bomb threat procedures, and College lockdown policy. College Public Safety Officers perform annual training in each of these procedures. Training may include formal training at the Connecticut Police Academy, internal training conducted by qualified department members, and various drills including unannounced fire drills and shelter-in-place drills.

Hartford Police and Fire Departments, and Connecticut State Police participate and assist in conducting Fire and Shelter-In-Place Drills. All officers are required to maintain annual certification in First Aid and CPR. All officers receive training in delivery of emergency text alert notifications several times per calendar year.

College policy is emergency notifications to the College and surrounding community will be made without delay. Policy dictates information concerning any situation presenting an immediate threat of physical harm or property damage will be passed on to the community at once. The method of notification will vary according to the specific situation. Notification processes may include any or all of the following: In person notification, loudspeaker, television, radio, horn/sirens, telephone, public address system, e-mail, or College's Everbridge Emergency Alert System that sends an individual text message to any person that has not opted out of the automatic registration of their cell phone and personal email address into the system. All students are automatically entered into the text alert system upon registration and the system is updated daily. Parents and family members are encouraged to contact Campus Public Safety and register their mobile phone into the system. There is no cost for this service.

Capital Community College Department of Police/Public Safety has close ties and or letters of understanding with various state and local agencies. This includes the Hartford Police and Fire Departments, Connecticut State Police, and 960 Management (a private mall that houses several business, as well as city, state and federal agencies).

The Director of Police/Public Safety maintains active memberships and associations with the International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP), Connecticut Association of College Law Enforcement Administrators (CTACLEA), and the Security Communication Access Network [Hartford SCAN/HartScan]; A coalition of over 70 Hartford business and public safety organizations dedicated to reducing crime in the downtown Hartford area through training and exchange of intelligence.

Associate Dean of Campus Operations Eduardo Miranda and Director of Police/Public Safety are the administrators for college notification systems. All Campus Police and Public Safety Officers receive periodic training on the Everbridge Alert System in the event that an alert must be issued when either the Director of Police/Public Safety and/or Dean of Campus Operations are not available. The system is tested monthly to insure proper operation.

The Capital Community College Department of Police/Public Safety Officers filed 26 incident reports for calendar year 2020. Campus Police vigorously and impartially investigates all crimes reported to the College. The Department received no reports of part one crimes that were founded or unfounded.

The 26 reported incidents in 2020 compares with 75 in 2019, representing an approximately 66% drop from the number of incidents in 2019. This dramatic drop is due largely as a result the COVID19 Pandemic restrictions imposed and campus closures.

Victims of crimes receive written notification on the updated status of sensitive investigations and any complaint made against a College employee. Victims, and persons accused of crimes and/or violations of College policy, have a right to present evidence on their behalf, and are entitled to a fair and impartial hearing. They have the right to have an advocate of their choosing present during any hearing, and investigations will be conducted in a timely manner.

The Department of Police/Public Safety will assist in proper referrals for victims of Domestic Violence or Sexual Assault. This includes assisting in contacting a Victim Advocate, Women's Shelters, and seeking Restraining/Protective Orders.

Public Safety Officers constantly monitor electronic surveillance of activity on and around the campus with 89 CCTV cameras and CCTV video recording of all activity is maintained for a period of 90 days.

A copy of this report is made available to all new employees, as well as current and prospective students. Police/Public Safety addresses new students at orientation and the Clery Report is a main topic of discussion. Students, faculty and staff are advised of the report during student orientations at the start of each semester, during faculty orientation, during all College meetings held at least twice per calendar year, via the College Bulletin, Human Resources, or Police/Public Safety. This report is sent out electronically to all students. The report is advertised by Capital Community College in the form of posters, flyers, e-mails, and electronic message boards on each floor of the college.

ALCOHOL and DRUG POLICY

Capital Community College's standards of conduct are in compliance with Public Law 101-226, The Drug Free Schools and Communities Act. The standards of conduct prohibit unlawful possession, use, and distribution of illicit drugs or alcohol by students, employees, or visitors on the College campus or at College activities. Any person knowingly and unlawfully possessing, using, transmitting, selling, or being under the influence of any dependency producing drug or alcohol on campus or at any College sponsored activity or event, may be subject to disciplinary action.

SEXUAL ASSAULT POLICY

Capital Community College encourages victims of sexual assault to report the crime to the Police/Public Safety supervisor on duty, or to any uniformed member of the department. Police/Public Safety will assist in filing a College incident report and contacting the Hartford Police Department or other appropriate agency. The College will provide counseling through the Counseling Center and/or Health Services and can provide information regarding other resources for help.

SEXUAL HARRASSMENT POLICY

Sexual harassment can take many forms, such as physical (touching, kissing, pinching), verbal (jokes or sexual innuendo), visual (display of offensive pictures whether printed or computer displayed), or threatening harassment (implied or explicit abuse which threatens a person who does not comply with such requests).

Capital Community College prohibits any behavior by a College student, employee or visitor that constitutes sexual harassment. Should you find yourself in a situation you suspect may be a type of sexual harassment, you are urged to speak to the Associate Dean of Student Affairs, or where appropriate, Human Resources. The college strongly encourages the reporting of sexual misconduct, including sexual harassment, sexual assault, and intimate partner violence, as an effective means of taking action by reporting such acts to the appropriate officials and pursuing criminal or disciplinary remedy or both.

Associate Dean of Campus Operations; Eduardo Miranda, Suite 210, 860-906-5050
Title IX Coordinator; Angelo Simoni, Email to simonia@ct.edu or 860-723-0165
Interim Director of Police/Public Safety; Joel White, Suite 102, 860-906-5076

Sexual harassment, as well as any reprisal or retaliation by an offender, is illegal and punishable by law. Use of the internet for viewing pornographic material or carrying on private, personal "chat" sessions is considered sexual harassment and is forbidden.

Mandated reporting requirements of the Child Protection Law requires a report to the Connecticut Department of Social Services when the college receives information that a person under the age of eighteen years of age may have been sexually assaulted. College employees designated as “Campus Security Authorities” under the Jeanne Clery Act have a duty to report information regardless of the age of the reported victim. The College also employs individuals who are members of professions that are mandated reporters under Connecticut law, such as early childhood professionals, nurses and police. In order to comply with the ethical requirements of their professions and the law, a professional who receives a report of sexual violence may not be able to maintain the confidentiality of the reported violence. All “mandated reporters” receive training at least two times per calendar year.

All reports of sexual violence will be thoroughly investigated by Campus Police, Associate Dean of Student Affairs, the Title IX Coordinator, and College Sexual Assault Response Team. Persons are urged to report incidents as soon as possible. Capital Community College puts no time limit on acceptance and investigation of incidents, however, timely reporting tends to have a very strong, positive impact on the fairness and success of the investigation. Recollections may fade, witnesses become inaccessible, and physical evidence becomes unavailable with the passage of time.

Capital Community College has a variety of resources available on campus and in the community to assist in dealing with sexual violence. These resources are available whether or not the incident occurred on campus or off campus. These resources include, but are not limited to: Administrative remedy, Law Enforcement, Counseling, various Domestic/Sexual Violence prevention and assistance partners. Capital Community College also provides several on-going educational and awareness programs to the College to include Situational Awareness and Self-Defense for women and “See Something, Say Something”, active bystander training. Members of the college Sexual Assault Response Team (SART) receive additional annual training and updates.

In addition, I need statistics concerning any of the above that manifest evidence of a Hate Crime.

Capital Community College is also required to request statistics for arrests in these categories: Liquor Law and Drug Violations, and Illegal Weapons Violations.

Therefore, I request the required statistics for the following locations:

- The sidewalks directly in front of the college to the curb line to include Main Street, Market Street and Talcott Street
- Morgan and [former] Talcott Street Parking Garages
- 950 Main Street
- 960 Main Street

I appreciate your cooperation in assisting us in complying with this federal law. If you have any questions, please contact me at (860) 906-5075.
